Bloomfield Building Tables Discussion on Selling Unit

MEMPHIS, Tenn.—Bloomfield Building Industries Inc. said it has tabled indefinitely discussion of the sale of its construction subsidiary, Southern Builders Inc., to three Bloomfield directors.

Harry Bloomfield, president, previously had said the concern would sell the subsidiary and enter new fields. The company didn't elaborate on the decision to table the discussion.

Bloomfield Building owns some real estate in addition to its construction subsidiary and operates the $16 million International Trade Mart, a New Orleans office building. Mr. Bloomfield and his famliy own about 600,000 of the company's 1,600,000 shares.
